The Simons at the Normal have comnenced taking physical exercises under the direction of Miss Noyes. A warrant was issued on Tuesday morning by Justice of the Peace Hutchinson, at the instance of Mrs. Sarah Howey, for the arrest of Newton Fritz, 17-year-old boy whom Mrs. Howey charged with having assaulted her son, Harry, 12 years old. The Fritz boy, it is alleged, goes armed with a revolver. The parties live in the upper portion of East Stroudsburg. A hearing of the case was held on Wednesday evening and young Fritz furnished bonds to keep the peace. East Stroudsburg, it is currently reported, is to have a private institution for the deaf and dumb. Professor J. T. Ellwell, who is connected with the Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, recently purchased from esse R. Smith a piece of land on Lenox avenue, situated on the flats. This has been staked out and workmen are now preparing the ground for building. The institution, it is said, will be a private one for training the deaf and dumb. The site is a beautiful one and comprises over five acres.

SCRANTON, PA., April 8, 1895 Dear Silas:

Before accepting your kind invitation to spend the EASTER HOLIDAY with you at Farmville, I would like to know if there are any commissions which I can attend to for you. You know everything is much cheaper here and more up to date than around your part of the country, and if you have any change, I should advise you to invest it in yourself and the boys. There is a store here called "THE BELL," No. 230 Lackawanna avenue, where I bought a suit very cheap. You will be surprised to hear that I paid only $7.00 for it. Gent's furnishing goods can also be bought there for half the amount that you would pay in Farmville. Let me know by return of mail just what you want. and I shall be glad to accommodate you. With love to Lydia, Ruben and John, also your-
